"No more short-sighted policy was ever inaugurated than the plan of curbing the floods of the Mississippi with levees," said James Seldon Cowdon, the promoter of the outlet system. "The United States Government has already spent over $50,000,000 in the construction of the huge dikes lining the Mississippi. Notwithstanding this expenditure and the construction of 1,300 miles of levees, the floods of the Mississippi annually overflow millions of acres, which, if redeemed and insured against flood, would form one of the most fertile gardens in the world."

HOME TESTIMONY FOR HOME PEOPLE.

When you are asked to take the word of someone unknown and at a distance as to the value of an article it requires a stretch of faith. When you are told that someone in your own town—someone whom you know or can go and verify the statement—says the article is all it is claimed to be, it gives it at once the stamp of honesty. This is the principal reason why Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. Home testimony for home people.

Mr. R. H. Wallace of No. 28 East Front street, Maysville, Ky., says: "I have been for a long time troubled with severe nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and indigestion. Having read in the papers of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I thought I would try them. I got a box at Chenoweth's Drugstore and am pleased to say my nerves are strong and steady again—I sleep well—I am no longer bothered with those dizzy spells and my appetite and digestion are splendid. I am able as a consequence to recommend the medicine very highly to others who suffer in a like manner."
